PETITIONING THE COURT

To issue a summons

On September 6, 2024, the judgment relative to case number 2:22CR000168-WFN-1 was reviewed and signed by Mr. Collum, acknowledging an understanding of his conditions of supervised release.

The probation officer believes that the offender has violated the following condition(s) of supervision:

Violation Number	Nature of Noncompliance
-------------------------	--------------------------------

1	Standard Condition #8: You must not communicate or interact with someone you know is engaged in criminal activity. If you know someone has been convicted of a felony, you must not knowingly communicate or interact with that person without first getting the permission of the probation officer.

Supporting Evidence: It is alleged Mr. Collum is in violation of his conditions of supervised release for communicating with a known felon on or before January 3, 2025, without the knowledge or consent of the undersigned officer.

On January 3, 2025, the undersigned officer was contacted by an investigator with the Washington State Department of Corrections (DOC). The investigator advised they have intercepted several phone calls between Mr. Collum and an inmate within a DOC facility. The inmate is currently incarcerated for numerous felony convictions, which include identity theft, possession with intent to deliver illegal drugs, unlawful possession of a firearm, and theft of a motor vehicle. Mr. Collum was not authorized such contact.
